

HAMLET

A 90-MINUTE ACTION PACKED THRILLER FOR AUDIENCES OF ALL AGES

- Two families at odds when the son of a South American kingpin falls in love with the daughter of a prestigious New York City university president

- Shot on location in New York City, this contemporary re-envisioning of Shakespeare's classic mixes contemporary Spanish with Shakespeare's original dialogue

Hamlet leaves his South American home to attend Wittenberg University in New York City in order to escape the violence of his family's narcotics business. But when his mother, his uncle and even his father's ghost come to the university for parents' weekend, Hamlet discovers that his uncle is responsible for his father's death. Now Hamlet must choose between family loyalty and his desire to escape the violence of the drug trade. After proving his uncle's guilt, he decides to take down his family's drug cartel, even if it means his own destruction.

